3. Louis Adamic unofficially visited Pirano, Portorose and Capodistria on 22 April. He was escorted by J. Beltrame, a Communist and president of a local Peoples Committee.
2. A correspondent of a Yugoslav journal attempted to interview Adamic but Adamic refused to talk, stating that he desired his visit to remain secret inasmuch as it might be misconstrued by the Allies in Trieste.
3. The Primorski Dnevnik, a Yugoslav Communist paper in Trieste, printed no story, but the Corriere di Trieste carried a small article on Adamic's visit to Yugoslavia on the second page.
